About, 2630 B.C. Imhotep, architect to King Djoser (Dynasty III), masterminded the Step Pyramid at Sakkara. The world's oldest freestanding stone structure, this pyramid consists of six tiers atop a mastaba, or low, oblong tomb, faced with cut stone. We will explore Sakkara's east side which contain the sound temples. From cone-like walls to empty niches built into the wall, experiment with the resonant frequencies using sound. Ride a camel across the desert sands with views of the pyramids.

We will then visit one of the carpet schools where Egyptian children hand make carpets out of their own imagination. Late lunch will take place at a typical Egyptian restaurant at the countryside.

We complete our day with a visit to the Egyptian Museum of Cairo to view the spiritual legacy of the priest kings, queens, scribes and healers.

In the early morning, we depart for a private visit to the Giza Plateau; to see some of the most awesome Wonders of the World to touch them and to feel them – the Great Sphinx and the Pyramids of the Giza Plateau. We will study them and pay particular attention to the Sphinx, especially when you stand privately between the Paws of the Sphinx. Our Egyptologist guide will give us detailed explanation of various controversial theories surrounding these amazing structures.

We return to the Mena House for a hot buffet breakfast.

Then, we are transferred to Cairo airport to get on our short flight to Aswan, the pearl of the Nile. We will board our beautiful and private Dahabeya, our home for the next eight days. In the afternoon, we will board a traditional Felucca to ride around Elephantine Island. Throughout our adventure, we invite you to step into timelessness. ### Day 4 The Great Mother, Isis. Philae & Kom Ombo Temples

Group Exploration. Philae Temple, Sailing to Kom Ombo / Kom Ombo temple. Sunday, Sept. 17th

Today, by sunrise, we return to the source of all, the Great Mother, to receive the blessings of Isis at her beautiful island temple at Philae. This represents a fusion of three great civilizations – Egyptian, Greek, and Roman. The presence of Isis is palpable in the inner sanctum, the Holy of Holies of her temple. After exploring the grounds and some storytelling on the island, we return to our Dahabeya for a hot buffet breakfast.

We continue sailing the Nile to visit the only dual temple in Egypt at Kom Ombo. This dramatic temple poised between the edge of the river and the encroaching desert sand was dedicated to two gods - Sobek the crocodile god of strength, fortitude, fertility and rebirth, and Horus the hawk-headed son of Isis and Osiris. Group Exploration. Sailing & Edfu Temple. Tuesday, Sept. 19th

Here, we follow the pattern of the hero's quest as we learn how Horus and his followers (the Shemsu Hor) conquered chaos, and we see the sacred marriage of the king and queen as the embodiment of Horus and the goddess Hathor. The side chambers of the temple show the complexity of the rites that include a healing chamber, a perfumery, and singers' rooms. One chamber, called the House of Life, stored all the sacred texts used in seasonal and daily rituals.

The Temple of Luxor, built in 1400 BCE during Egypt’s new Kingdom, is known as Ipet Resyt which means the southern sanctuary; its main function was during the annual Opet festivals. At these festivals, the statues of Amun, Mut, and Khonsu were moved from Karnak, along the Avenue of the Sphinxes, and reunited here during the inundation.
